

Expression Deaf Grants

Proudly a part of Expression Australia

The Expression Deaf Grants aim to give people who are Deaf and hard of hearing the opportunity to create access, inclusion and equal opportunity in all areas of life.

If you have an idea on how to do this, we'd love to see your Expression Deaf Grant application.

To submit an application for an Expression Deaf Grant, you can:

- Fill out this application form
- Make an Auslan video of your application and email either a link to your video to view or download (e.g. YouTube, dropbox)
- Use the subject line "Expression Deaf Grant Application" in your email

Application dates for the 2019 Expression Deaf Grants are:

Round 1	Round 2	Round 3	Round 4
Jan 31 2019	Apr 30 2019	Jul 31 2019	Oct 31 2019

Email your Expression Deaf Grant application form, or email a link to your Auslan application to grants@expression.com.au before the close of the round.

Expression Deaf Grants Terms and Conditions

Please read these Terms and Conditions.

By accepting a grant from Expression Australia, it is understood that you have read and agreed to these Terms and Conditions:

(Please note, if you are under 18 years of age, it is understood that your parent or guardian has read and consents to these Terms and Conditions on your behalf).

- Expression Australia's decision on grant recipients is final
- Expression Australia, its staff and volunteers cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage that occurs as a direct or indirect result of this project
- You cannot claim against Expression Australia for damage or injury incurred as a result of this project/initiative
- You are in a suitable physical and mental condition to undertake the project/initiative and have considered and taken measures to mitigate any risk that may be associated
- Expression Australia reserves the right to withdraw the grant and support at any time should the project/initiative or applicant fail to comply with Expression Australia guidelines

If you accept a grant from Expression Australia you agree to:

- Promote the reputation of Expression Australia
- Acknowledge the support of Expression Australia in a positive way
- Ask for permission before using our brands or logos in any form
- Not claim, or imply, that you speak on behalf or that your views are representative of Expression Australia
- Act lawfully and in good faith regarding Expression Australia

If you do not meet these guidelines; do not follow your project/initiative plan or if you provide false or misleading information, your grant may be terminated and you may be required to pay back grants monies.

Reporting

At the end of your project/initiative you will need to provide a report detailing how you have spent grant funds; what your project/initiative has achieved; and what you have learned from the opportunity. It is your responsibility to provide this report to Expression Australia by the due date.

Information, images and video usage

If you are offered a grant, your details including name, project/initiative information, photograph, video and other material may be used by Expression Australia for promotional purposes, including but not limited to Expression Australia's website, social media channels, print and electronic media. This information may be passed on to the public media. If you do not wish for your details to be passed on to media or used for promotional purposes, you must notify Expression Australia in writing. If you attend events held by Expression Australia, photos and videos of you at the event (along with your name and grant), may be used for promotional purposes by Expression Australia.
